Free Career Workshops at the Orange County One-Stop Center!

One-Stop Center/ One-Stop Center/WIOA Orientation

The OC One-Stop Orientation will provide you with information about the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act and the services available at the One-Stop Center and through community resources and partners. You will also learn about the programs, educational opportunities, tools and resources available to help you in your job search.

Empowering You: Job Seeker Strategies

This workshop is designed to assist job seekers who are interested in taking charge of their job search by exploring who they are, what they want and how to get there. Searching for a job is a continuous process that allows you to move from one stage to another stage as your life changes. This workshop will teach you about the latest job search processes, tools and strategies.

Winning Resumes

Learn how to create a resume and what an employer wants to see. Become familiar with multiple resume styles and their different purposes for job search. Understand the “do’s” and “don’ts” in developing your resume. Also learn the elements of good cover letter writing.

Interview Techniques

Employment experts teach you how to sell yourself and overcome fear in interviewing. Learn the steps to preparing for an interview and knowing how to answer common and challenging interview questions. This workshop also emphasizes the importance of making a good first impression and the use of body language. Feel free to sign up for a Mock interview with a career consultant. (Mock Interviews with career consultants available upon request.)

Transferable Skills

The concept of transferable skills is a vital job-search technique that all job-seekers should master, especially career changers, college students, and those re-entering the workforce. Transferable skills are skills you have acquired during any activity in your life--virtually any skills are transferable and applicable to what you want to do in your next job. You also will take assessment tests that highlight your strengths and assess the skills you can transfer to another career.

Resume Open Lab: For individuals who have completed the Winning Resume workshop first and would like additional support in further developing the format of their resume using the wide variety of resume templates provided in the Winning Resume workshop. Opportunity to work directly on the computers with a facilitator present to answer questions and provide assistance for resumes.

Networking/ Hidden Job Market

Explore different networking techniques and how to tap into the hidden job market. Learn how to initiate and build contacts, start a networking conversation, and create a self-marketing plan. Develop your own introduction or “30 second commercial.”

Successful Financial Strategies

Assess your current financial situation, especially as a job seeker. Whether you would like to better manage your personal finances or are experiencing financial difficulties, learn the steps to develop a successful financial plan. Identify ways to increase income and decrease expenses and rebuild your credit. Understand the basics of taxation and savings so you can build a solid financial foundation.

LinkedIn—Beginner/Intermediate

Learn how to create a LinkedIn account and build your professional profile. You will learn about the basic features of LinkedIn-Beginner to expand your professional networking opportunities. Provide jobs seekers with tips on how to utilize privacy settings on social networking sites to ensure a successful job search.

Overcoming Barriers

This workshop prepares previously incarcerated job seekers to re-enter the job market including resume preparation and how to answer interview questions.

Labor Market Information

Learn how to strengthen your job search by accessing information about the in-demand and high-growth industries and occupations. We also provide career exploration resources.

Job Fair Readiness

This workshop is designed to provide tips to assist you in making a successful impression in finding that ideal job and includes how to best target and research employers attending the Job Fair. Employers make use of Job Fairs to attract and screen candidates. As a candidate, we want you to be prepared in putting your best foot forward in communicating to employers how you would be the best fit for any open positions.

(Special Topic #1) P5: The Essential Elements for Making Presentations Powerful, Speeches Sensational and Meetings Matter

Each of us has something to share, that when presented effectively, can be memorable for others. In this workshop you will learn the 10 ways to structure a presentation for flow and effectiveness. You will find out what questions must be answered before you speak to establish a purpose that serves. Also, you will understand the several ways you can actually build collaboration with your audience. (Guest Speaker: Rob “Coach Rob” Swineford is a speaker, author, entrepreneur and corporate coach who helps companies, schools and organizations of all types improve their players and strengthen their teams.)

(Special Topic #2) Help - Asking, Giving, and Receiving - Solving Problems Without Ruining Relationships

Going through new seasons of life, or seasons of adversity, requires learning how to do things differently. Navigating these seasons often involves getting help from others – people and institutions. This workshop will help participants clarify their actual needs; identify who, when, where and how to ask for help; recognize how to respond when receiving help; and respond to requests for help from others. (Guest speaker: Kathleen High has been working with students, adults in transition, and the unemployed, prompting her to start New Career Vision, a potential non-profit organization.)

(Special Topic #3) Create a Winning Plan for Your Business

Whether you’re starting or “restarting” your business developing a Business Plan minimizes risk of failure and increases chances for success. In this workshop you’ll learn how to get started on a plan for your business, what it should contain, and how and when it’s used. In addition you’ll learn where you can get help preparing your Business Plan, help that can be had for free. (Guest Speaker: Dennis Wright, SCORE Western Regional Specialist, has a 43 year business career included sales, procurement and management roles.)
