

On-the-Job Training (OJT)

What is OJT?

On-the-Job Training is an investment in your company. Hands-on training that you design. An opportunity to train new employees your way. A payment from us to offset training costs.

Why OJT?

We'll help you find eligible candidates for your open positions. We'll reimburse you for the costs associated with their training, up to 50% of the individual's wages.

How Does OJT Work?

We match qualified candidates with your job openings. We help you develop a training plan to meet your unique business needs. OJT is planned and organized prior to hiring and conducted at your locations.

You hire. You train. We pay.
